FUN FAIR

The Fun Fair at SAPS on 4th Jan 2025, was a lively and enjoyable event for students, parents, and teachers. The fair featured a variety of stalls, including food stalls serving delicious snacks and ice cream, stationery shops, boutiques with trendy items, and a mehndi corner offering beautiful henna designs. Fun activities like trampoline jumping and games such as ring toss added excitement for all age groups. The beautifully decorated venue created a cheerful atmosphere, bringing everyone together for a day of fun and celebration. It was a memorable event that left everyone looking forward to the next fair.

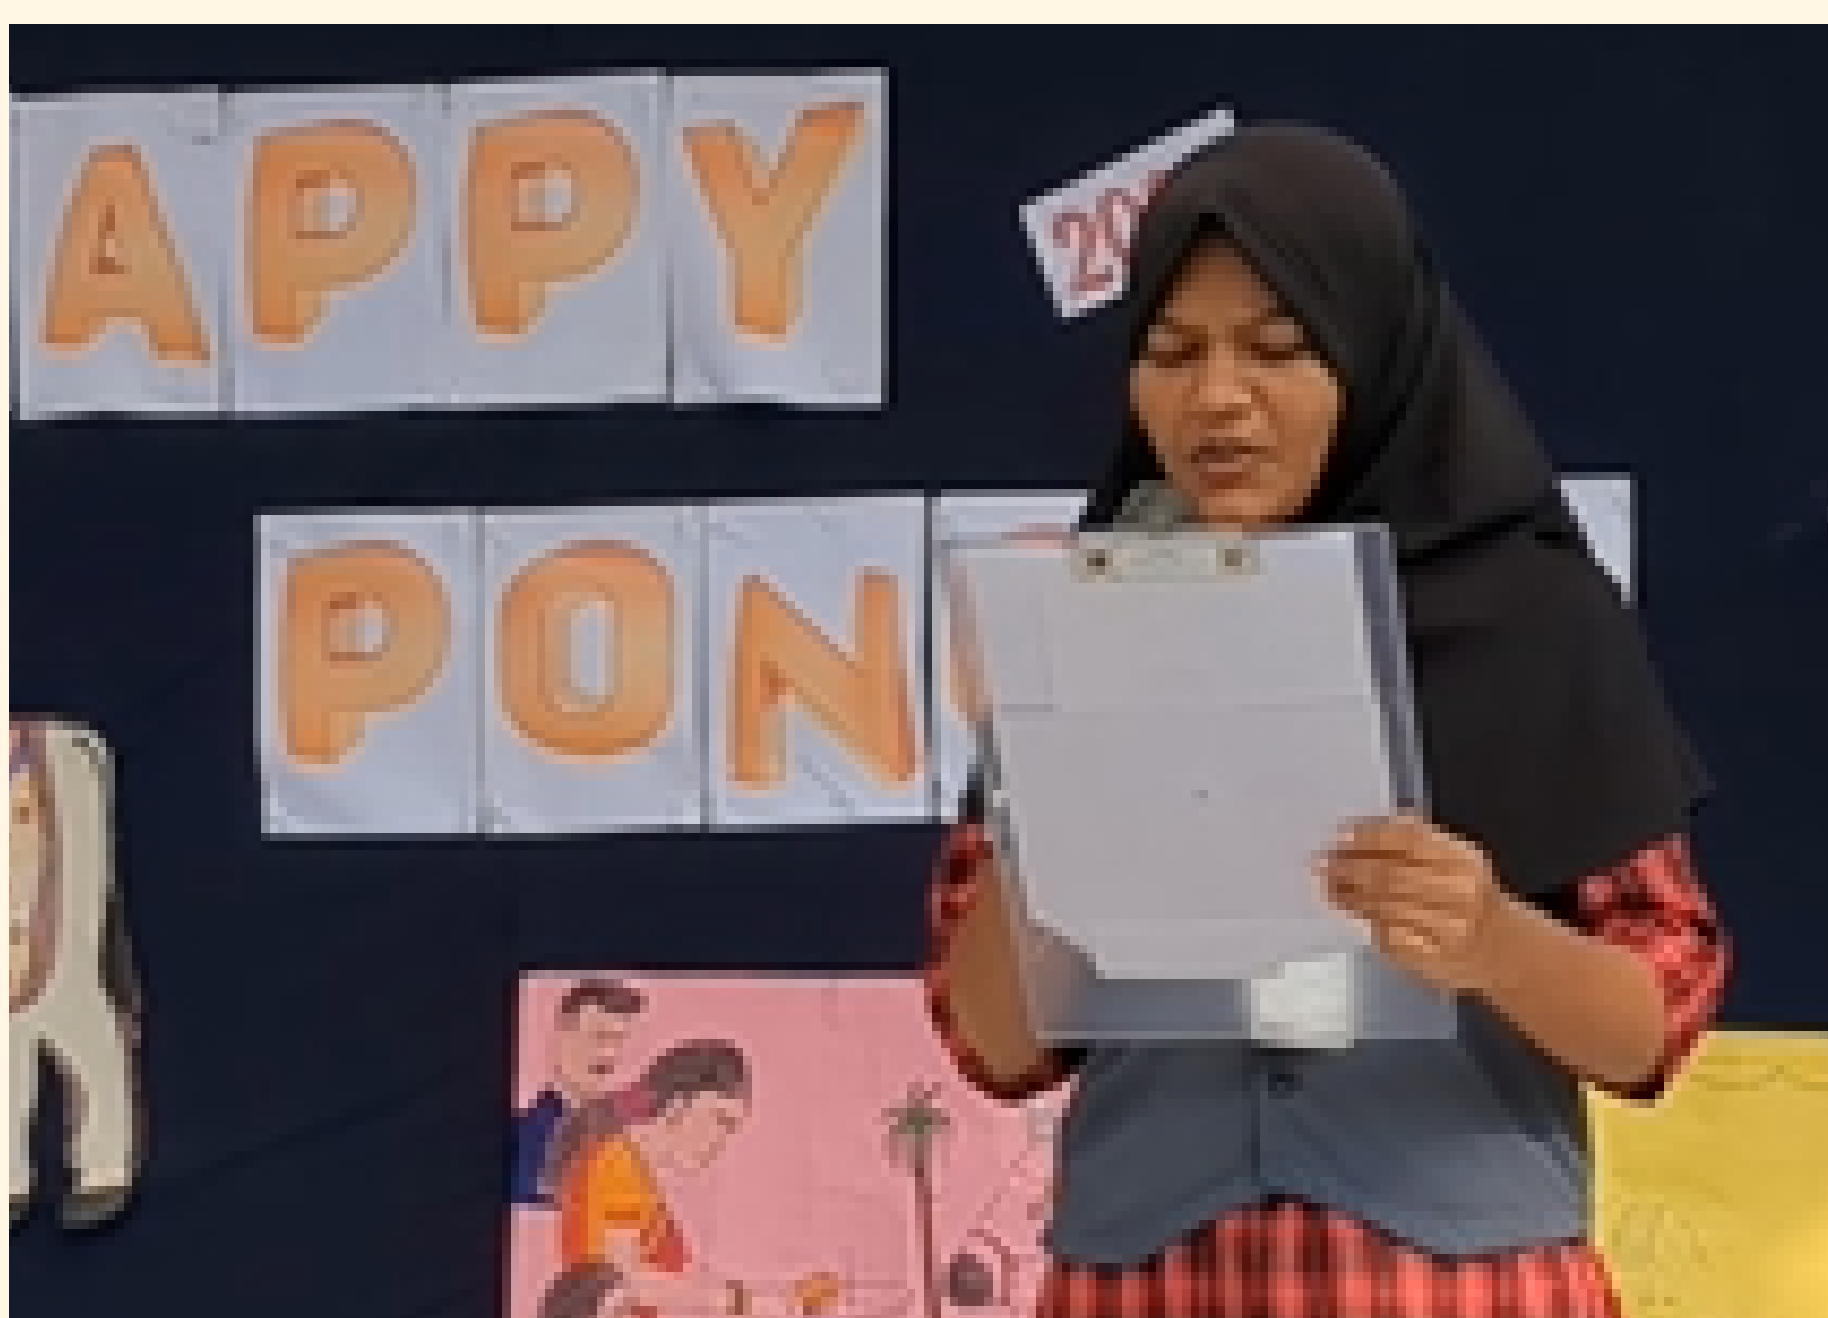

The Pongal celebration at SAPS for Kindergarten was a joyful and colourful event filled with excitement and enthusiasm. The little ones dressed in traditional attire, adding charm to the festive atmosphere. A mini Pongal setup with sugarcane, pots, and decorations helped the children learn about the festival's significance.

The kids enjoyed fun activities like making rangoli, clay pot painting, and singing folk songs. Teachers explained the importance of Pongal in a simple and engaging way. The event ended with everyone sharing sweets, creating a memorable day of learning and celebration for the young learners.

The Pongal celebration at SAPS on January 11 was a grand and joyous occasion, bringing together students from Grade 1 to 12. The event showcased the cultural essence of Pongal through vibrant songs, traditional dances, and festive decorations.

A special highlight of the celebration was the preparation and serving of Pongal, symbolizing gratitude and unity. All students enthusiastically participated, enjoying the delicious sweet dish served with love. The event beautifully captured the spirit of the harvest festival, leaving everyone with cherished memories and a deeper appreciation for tradition.
